Shrinking Powder

Tips for Reading Together

Children learn best when reading is fun.

- Talk about the title and the pictures on the cover.
- Discuss what you think the story might be about.
- Read the story together, inviting your child to read as much of it as they can.
- Give lots of praise as your child reads, and help them when necessary.
- Try different ways of helping if they get stuck on a word. For example, get them to say the first sound of the word, or break it into chunks, or read the whole sentence again, trying to guess the word. Focus on the meaning.
- Have fun finding the hidden letters.
- Re-read the story later, encouraging your child to read as much of it as they can.

Children enjoy re-reading stories and this helps to build their confidence.

Have fun!

Dad did the washing, but he put the clothes in a hot wash.

“Oh no!” said Dad. “The clothes have shrunk.”

“Look at my top,” said Kipper.

“Look at my jeans,” said Biff.

“Sorry,” said Dad. “I forgot to set the washing machine. It was too hot.”

Chip made a little boy with the clothes that had shrunk.
"That's a good joke," laughed Biff.

Suddenly, the magic key began to glow. It took the children into an adventure.

The key took them to a shop.
It sold magic tricks and strange things.

"Wow!" said Chip. "It's a joke
shop. But there's nobody here.
I think the shop is shut."

Suddenly, there was a loud POP and a puff of purple smoke.

"What's that?" asked Chip.

A boy was standing in the shop.
"I'm sorry about all the smoke,"
he said.

"I'm Jake," said the boy. "I'm learning to be a wizard. Watch this."

"Hooray! It works," said Jake, "but learning to be a wizard is not easy."

Jake took a tin out of his pocket.
“I want to try this,” he said.

“It’s shrinking powder,” said Jake.
“I want to see if it works.”
He shook some over Kipper.

Kipper began to shrink. "Help!" he said. "Everything looks big."

"Hooray!" said Jake. "It works!"
"Oh no!" said Biff and Chip.
"Kipper has shrunk."

"It's not funny," said Kipper.
Jake tapped Kipper with a wand.
"Now I'll make him big," he said.

Suddenly, Kipper had huge ears.
"Whoops!" said Jake. "That's not quite right ... let me try again."

Jake waved the wand. Suddenly,
Kipper had long, green hair.

"This is not funny," said Kipper.

Jake waved the wand again.
"I am sorry," said Jake. "I can't make him big."

Chip was cross. He took Jake's wand. "Let me try," he said.
Just then, the key glowed.

The key took them back. Kipper's big ears and green hair had gone, but he was still small.

"Dad is coming," said Chip. "We can't let him see Kipper."

"Let's put a box on him," said Biff.

Suddenly, Kipper was big again.
"What are you up to?" asked Dad.

"Shrinking Kipper," said Biff.
 "That's a good joke!" laughed
 Dad.

Think about the story

How did
 Jake make Kipper shrink?

What went wrong?

How did Kipper feel when he had shrunk?

Which magic tricks have you seen?
